DRESS UNIFORMS IN INAUGURAL PARADE

Maj. Gen. Scott Orders All Service Organizations to Wear Best Attire.

TWO NEW AIDES APPOINTED

Civil War Veterans ta Occupy Honor Place In Big Pageant.

Full dress uniforms will be worn by all the military organizations that are to participate in the inaugural parade, Maj, Gen. Hugh L. Scott, grand marshal of the pageant, decided today. The sailors will wear the dress blue, and the marines will be in undress blue. National guardsmen not equipped with full dress will wear the service uniform of olive drab. In the event of inclement weather, over-coats will be worn. The grand mar-shal will determine before 10 o'clock on the morning of the parade whether the regimental vercoat will be donned.

Aldes Appointed.

General Scott today appointed Col. William M. Wright, of the general staff, and Major Oscar J. Charles, of the quartermaster corps, as aides on the staff of the grand marshal.

In recognition of the service gallantly performed during the days of civil strife in this country, the of civil strife in this country, the venerable veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, are to be given a good place in the parade. All will march behind a banner ta-scribed—"Ready Again for Any Duty."

DOES RHEUMATISM BOTHER YOU?

Many Doctors Use Musterole So many sufferers have found relief in Musterole that you ought to buy a small jar and try it. Just spread it on with the fingers. Rub it in. First you feel a gentle glow, then a delicious, cooling com-fort. Musterole routs the twinges, loosens up stiffened joints and muscles. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It penetrates to the seat of pain and drives it away, but does not blister the tenderest skin. It takes the place of the mussy, old fashioned mustard plaster.

Musterole is recommended for bronchitis, croup, asthma, pleurisy, lum-bago, neuralgia, sprains, bruises, stiff neck, headache and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).
